

Trust can save the future

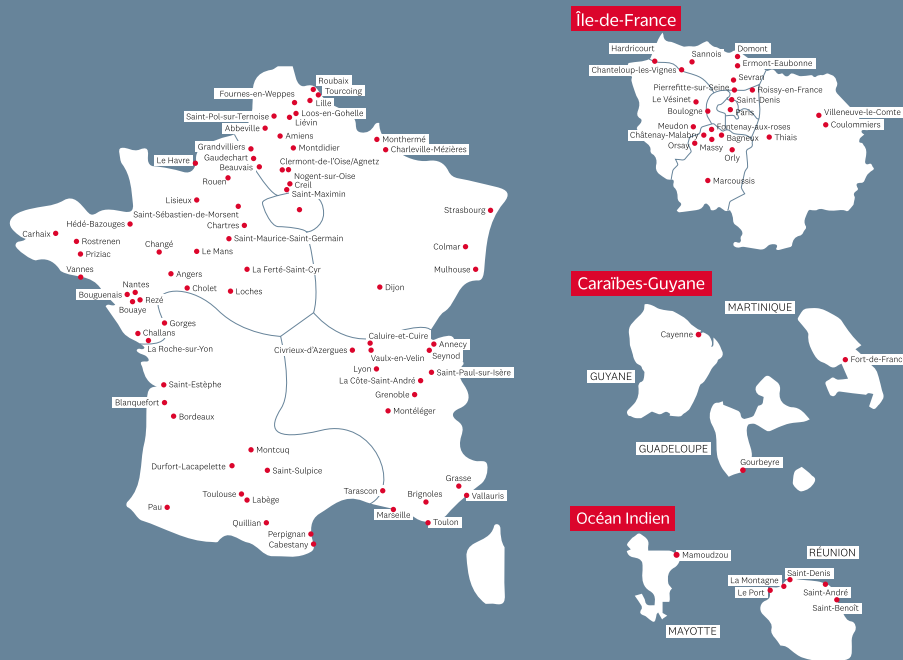

A Government-recognised Catholic Public Service Foundation and committed operator in child protection and prevention services, Apprentis d'Auteuil develops, in France and abroad, programmes for foster care, education, training and integration to give back to young people and vulnerable families what they lack most: trust.

BENCHMARKS & KEY FIGURES

OUR PRESENCE IN FRANCE AND ABROAD

Direct operator in France with numerous locations in mainland France and overseas.

International operator alongside local partners working for the same cause.

OUR KEY FIGURES

5 fields of action

- Child protection
- Education and schooling
- Training and social and professional inclusion
- Support for families
- Advocacy for youth

In France nearly près de

30,000⁽¹⁾

supported young people from infants to young adults

6 000⁽¹⁾

supported families

240 institutions and initiatives

Children's care homes, schools, middle schools, high schools, apprenticeship training units, continuous training centres, mechanisms for integration, residential homes for families, nurseries etc.

Internationally

59

partners

15,000

supported young people and families in 31 countries

more than 2,200

young people and adults from

Apprentis d'Auteuil

involved in an operation internationally

more than 6,000

employees of which 76%

in direct contact with young people and families

4,000

volunteers including

1,200 regulars

€400m

in resources

Public funding.....57%
Private funding.....43%

(1) Including affiliated activities and overseas partners.

Trust can save the future

Apprentis d'Auteuil
Government-recognised Catholic Public Service Foundation

40, rue Jean de La Fontaine
75781 Paris Cedex 16
Tél. : 01 44 14 75 75

apprentis-auteuil.org

